1. State Outcomes delivered by the Family and Community Services Cluster

Enabling families to live independently

This outcome delivers community-level and early intervention supports to enable those in need of assistance to live independently within society.

Programs: Community Support and Development, Targeted Earlier Intervention

Protecting vulnerable people from harm

This outcome provides targeted support and services to those who are vulnerable and at-risk at home, or face challenges to actively participate in the community.

Programs: Child Protection, Domestic and Family Violence, Short Term Accommodation and Homelessness Supports

Ongoing support for vulnerable people

This outcome provides specialist advice services and wraparound support to assist the most vulnerable in our community. Services include social housing and permanency support and Out-of-Home Care (OOHC) for vulnerable children and young people.

Programs: Out-of-Home Care and Permanency Support, Social Housing

People with disability live independently

This outcome relates to services that follow the transition of clients to the NDIS, ensuring those in need are empowered to live their lives independently and achieve their goals in more inclusive communities.

Programs: Supporting Legacy Services

Other cluster agencies

This refers to other agencies within the Family and Community Services Cluster working to serve the community through grant programs.

Agencies: Aboriginal Housing Office, Land and Housing Corporation

2. Community Support and Development

This program focuses on building skills and strengthening family and carer relationships by providing assistance with the activities of everyday living to enable people to live in their own home and to participate in economic and community life. Community Support and Development also includes the Community Building Partnership program, which supports projects that encourage community participation and cohesion, and that deliver positive social, environmental and recreational outcomes.
