Agency overview

The Department of Communities and Justice (DCJ) is the lead agency under the Stronger Communities Cluster. DCJ works to enable everyone's right to access justice and help for families through early intervention and inclusion, with benefits for the whole community. Stronger Communities is focussed on achieving safe, just, inclusive and resilient communities by providing services that are effective and responsive to community needs. For the first time, the creation of DCJ and Stronger Communities provides an opportunity to focus on prevention and early intervention across both the social welfare and justice systems.

Primary purpose of the role

Identify, analyse and facilitate improvements to business systems, processes and workflows aligned with the overall business and strategic requirements and the Department's operational plans.

Key accountabilities

- Design tools and implement processes to identify, analyse and facilitate improvements to business systems, processes and workflows aligned with the overall business unit requirements and the Department's operational plans.
- Coordinate and undertake research and analysis of best practice on processes and activities to ensure DCJ internal and external services are delivered efficiently, business outcomes are measured and reported as required and systemic and emerging risks are promptly identified.
- Review the business unit's strategies to enable DCJ to deliver services in a cost effective manner and to position DCJ to meet current and future requirements.
- Develop and implement strategies to monitor service provider usage and capture funding and operational performance data to ensure DCJ service delivery partners are performing to a high standard.
- Provide proactive and evidence-based advice and reports to the business unit leader, Director and/or the Executive Director to ensure the business unit's matters which impact current business and future decision-making are fully considered.

- Research and prepare advice in the form of briefs, policy and discussion papers in response to Ministerial, Cabinet or DCJ requests.
- Liaise and work across DCJ Divisions and non-government stakeholders to ensure effective interface between program development, planning, service design and policy implementation.
- Work effectively with team members towards mutual continued development and provide feedback and advice on research and analysis undertaken.

Key challenges

- Identifying emerging issues and suggesting potential improvements to business processes and workflows in consultation with external and internal stakeholders in an environment of ongoing change.
- Keeping up-to-date and maintaining in-depth knowledge of economic and financial analysis methods, techniques and tools, relevant IT systems and application of these in a human services context.
