Domestic and family violence

Funding in this service type supports the victims of domestic violence across NSW. It focuses on the safety of victims and their children by strengthening the approach to violence prevention, changing the way services are delivered to support victims of violence, and delivering programs and services that hold perpetrators accountable and reduce re-offending.

Social housing and tenancy assistance

Funding in this service type covers housing assistance for people on low incomes or who are unable to access or maintain appropriate housing, managing tenancies in public, community and Aboriginal Housing Office properties and 'non-cash' grants in the form of property transfers from LAHC to Community Housing Providers. It also includes providing private rental market assistance as an alternative to social housing and to assist people to transition out of social housing.

Targeted earlier intervention for vulnerable children, young people and families

Funding in this service type supports vulnerable children, young people and their families to live better lives. It includes support services that intervene early to address family vulnerabilities and prevent escalation into or within the statutory child protection system, support services to reduce the incidence and impact of domestic violence against women and children, as well as broader services in communities.
