

Summary of Supported Temporary Accommodation (STA) priority areas and rates 24-25

Overview

The NSW Government is committed to enhancing access to Supported Temporary Accommodation (STA) for individuals and families experiencing homelessness. Through the Homelessness Innovation Fund, additional STA capacity will be introduced in key regions across NSW. This initiative aims to provide safe, supported, and accessible accommodation to meet diverse community needs. The expansion will prioritise key groups to ensure a broader and more equitable distribution of supported accommodation options. Homes NSW data and insights have been made available, to identify opportunity regions for expansion and the average rate structure of post-paid STA.
