1. I, Mark Speakman, Attorney General:

- (i) refer to the Instrument of Delegation executed by me on 31 December 2020 (as subsequently varied on 31 March 2021), a copy of which is attached marked "Annexure A" (together the Principal Instrument of Delegation);
- (ii) amend that instrument to include, as part of the authority to incur, commit or sanction expenditure (Financial Expenditure) that was conferred on the Secretary under the Principal Instrument of Delegation, the authority to sub-delegate under section 9.9(5) of the Government Sector Finance Act 2018 (GSF Act) in accordance with the relevant Schedules in "Annexure A1" to this Instrument;
- (iii) revoke the instruments of delegation referred to in "Annexure B" to this Instrument; and
- (iv) defer the revocation of the authority to incur financial expenditure for the DCJ (as contained in the Principal Instrument of Delegation) in respect of the instruments of delegation referred to in "Annexure C" to this Instrument, from 19 April 2021 until 26 July 2021. The authority to sub-delegate Financial Expenditure in these matters is restricted to the limits included in those instruments of delegation and applicable Schedules referred to in "Annexure C".

  - (ii) for Schedule M of Annexure A1, the effective date will be 26 July 2021, and despite anything to the contrary in the Principal Instrument of Delegation, the instruments of delegation in force immediately before the date of this Instrument that delegate authority to incur financial expenditure in respect of the matters described in the Schedules referred to in this paragraph 4(i) or 4(ii), will to that extent only remain in force until the effective date applicable to the relevant Schedules referred to above, occurs.

- 5. On each effective date referred to in paragraph 4 above, this Instrument will revoke any earlier instruments of delegation in so far as those earlier instruments relate to the authority to incur, commit or sanction expenditure for the services of the former Department of Family and Community Services or the former Department of Justice but only to the extent that any earlier instruments relate to the delegation of Financial Expenditure in respect of the subject matter of the Schedules referred to in paragraph

4 above. For clarity, nothing in this Instrument will derogate from the delegations made under the Principal Instrument of Delegation.

6. This Instrument takes effect from 19 April 2021 and will remain in force until revoked, withdrawn or varied, notwithstanding the termination of my office as Attorney General.

Financial Delegations – Conditions

The following conditions apply to the financial delegations:

Conditions:
1	The Financial Delegations are inclusive of GST, where applicable.
2	Unless otherwise prescribed, delegates must be Public Service employees, as defined in the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 .
3	Expenditure that relates to new projects or policies, discretionary grants, capital works, or use of underspent funds that are outside the ordinary course of business for the Department requires prior approval from the Attorney General.
4	No delegate may sub-delegate financial expenditure authority to a sub-delegate where the sub-delegate would be authorised to incur financial expenditure in excess of the threshold applicable in Schedule B to that sub-delegate.
5	A delegate must not exercise their financial delegations unless the delegate has confidence that funds are available in the relevant budget.
6	Delegates must not approve or authorise their own expenditure or authorisations. Furthermore, a delegate must not seek approval or authority from another delegate who occupies a position subordinate to the delegate. No delegate should originate and authorise the same expenditure.
7	Delegates may act on delegations only in respect of which the delegate has been named under his/her respective Business or Cost Centre.
8	Cost Centre managers may further limit the exercise of delegations by officers within their own business centre.
9	Purchase order approval levels must comply with the applicable financial delegations. Dividing or "splitting" amounts into smaller tranches, where they are related to the same transaction, with the aim or purpose of selecting a particular delegate's financial thresholds is inappropriate and not permitted.
10	All delegations must be exercised in accordance with all prescribed procurement and expenditure related government circulars, directions and memoranda.
11	General financial limits apply to all financial delegations unless a different financial limit is expressly stated in the delegation.
12	General financial limits apply to contract sums, not an annual sum (e.g., if a contract is entered into for $5,000,000 per annum for three years, a delegation of $15,000,000 is required).
13	"Category" are those delegation categories defined in Schedule A .
14	Level 3-13 approvers for their respective Division, Branch and Unit only.
15	To the extent that other delegations' Schedules are published (like Schedules C and J) and those Schedules include specific financial limits, then the limits in those Schedules must be adhered to and applied (i.e. the general financial limits in Schedule B do not apply). Capital expenditure limits are contained in Schedule C .
16	Managers may only approve the issuance of purchasing cards up to the transactional limit of their own financial delegation to other staff.

Delegations Manual

Human Resources

1. General Instructions

This document covers Human Resource delegations for the Department of Justice ("DJ"), detailing what employees can and cannot approve. It does not cover delegations that arise from the enabling legislation of statutory authorities and in some instances that are specific to some divisions.

These delegations supersede any divisional based human Resources delegations or delegated related documents. Any delegations relating to operational matters by an officer or statutory authority empowered under enabling legislation will not be affected by this document.

- At any time a delegate may be directed by a more senior delegate not to exercise a delegation, provided it is within the senior delegate's area of responsibility. This is to be managed as a local administrative arrangement and must be communicated in writing to relevant delegates;
- Managers have a responsibility to ensure all their staff, particularly those who hold a delegation, are aware of, and understand the powers and limitations of the delegations and the associated responsibilities;
- Delegates found to have exercised a delegation improperly or exceeded the scope of their delegation, may have their delegation(s) revoked without notice, in addition to any other disciplinary action;
- A delegate is not authorised to sub-delegate any of the delegated functions to another person unless that power is specifically delegated by the Secretary under section 27(2) of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013;
- It is the responsibility of delegates to ensure that they have complied with the legislation, award requirements and any other conditions relevant to the delegations they exercise;
- in accordance with the relevant legislation, awards, Government and Departmental policy, guidance, directives and any other conditions, restrictions or limitations to which the delegation is subject. Any references provided are not meant to be exhaustive. The onus is on the delegate to demonstrate that the conditions were satisfied before the delegation was exercised. Human Resources officers will be available if required by delegates to clarify any procedures;
- in conjunction with the Minister's financial delegations under the Public Finance and Audit Act 1983. The scope of a financial delegation should not be taken to expand the scope of any human resources delegation, nor shall the scope of a human resources delegation be taken to expand the scope of a financial delegation;

Delegates are encouraged to utilise the electronic version (and not print) as the delegations may be withdrawn or varied at any time.

1.2 Levels

Section 3 comprises the delegations to DJ employees assigned to roles within the levels in table 1. There may also be circumstances where some roles are specifically identified because the group is diverse in rank/grade or identified in a sub-group of a level because of the particular responsibilities.

Level
1	Department of Justice Executive Committee members
2	Senior Executive Band 2
3	Senior Executive Band 1 and General Managers CSNSW
3a	Directors, Strategic Human Resources
3b	No longer used
3c	Director, Academy and Operational Training, CSNSW
3d	Director Operations, Organisation Performance and Operations Division
3e	CSNSW Chief of Staff/Director, Office of the Commissioner
3f	CSNSW Senior HR Manager (Industrial Relations), Office of the Commissioner
4	Non-executive roles with responsibility for the management of employees
4a	Clerk 11/12, Human Resources Branch / Business Service Centre
4b	Clerk 9/10, Human Resources Division
4c	Clerk 7/8, Human Resources Division

An appropriate level of delegation will usually be considered and assigned to a role at the time of its creation or as requested by the relevant Division Head. The delegation is attached to the role not the individual. A person formally acting in the role assumes the relevant delegations.

Where a role is identified in a sub-group of a level, the delegate will also assume the generic functions for that level.

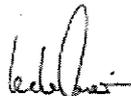

At any time a delegate may be directed by a more senior delegate not to exercise a delegation, provided it is within the senior delegate's area of responsibility. This is to be managed as a local administrative arrangement and must be communicated in writing to relevant delegates.

2. Instrument of Delegation

Pursuant to the provisions of section 27(1) of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013, I, Peter Severin, A/Secretary, Department of Justice do hereby authorise the employees performing the roles identified in section 1 – Delegate Levels, to undertake the functions listed in section 3 - Delegated Functions, to the extent specified and in accordance with section 2 - General Conditions for Delegates of the Department of Justice Human Resources Delegations.

These delegations rescind and replace all previous Human Resource Delegations.

The delegations have been allocated on the basis that the Secretary, Department of Justice is able to exercise all of the functions identified.
